Indexes and ETFs are above last Monday's close, so who care about today? Or the M report. Today, in continuing the Green New Deal, New Yorks' Mayor Bill de Blasio is telling building owners that they have until 2030 to get their buildings complaint with Green deal. And 5 years to get to renewable energy. What happened to letting the free markets control this? Between our high electric bill and concern for PG&E's integrity, we are going solar, without one regulation. The Green people need to be smarter?
